

A roundup of local sports briefs, news and announcements

Wednesday, February 13, 2013
(Published in print: Wednesday, February 13, 2013)

Golden Gloves boxing

Two area boxers won the championship in their respective divisions at the 2013 Northern New England Golden Gloves. Christopher Boyle (left) of Contoocook won the championship in the 152-pound Novice class and also received the distinctive award for Most Outstanding Boxer, while Gerard Rhude (right) of Hill won the title in the 165-pound Novice class. Both will advance to the New England Tournament of Champions in Lowell, Mass. The two are coached by Paul Averill (center).